Business Horoscope 2012 for Sagittarius

In the first half of the year your professional life will be quite peculiar. Some of you will continue the business started last spring or autumn, and both disappointment and success are waiting for you on this way. On one hand, you'll strengthen the position achieved and will have a certain progress in business affairs. New interesting and perspective acquaintances, acquiring of new friends and protectors are possible. Communication with partners from other cities or countries is developing successfully; frequent trips are possible. You are likely to find new friends at distant places or countries. What is more, many of you will consider moving to a new place or starting your own business in another city or country. These projects will hardly be put into life in 2012, but you'll succeed in making a good background for their further promotion. Stars advise lucky children of Jupiter to be more courageous in making decisions, to take responsibility as their future depends on it. On the other hand, your relations with partners won't be so brilliant as before. Some financial disagreements are possible that will stay the whole year and will have weakened your professional status by November and December. In the second half of the year Communication with colleagues from other cities or countries will be revised, that's why your future will seem uncertain, and you may doubt if the chosen way have been correct. Some of you will face a peculiar interest from the part of control powers or the existing juridical problem will reveal itself. Secret enemies and competitors will become more active, they will do their best to complicate the life of Sagittarius and to weaken his professional status. In the second half of the year employers need to be more attentive to behavior of their employees, and employees should be careful in communication with colleagues. After the storms of November and December 2012, it'll be possible to enjoy a peaceful life in 2013.
