Virgo 2012 Business Horoscope

In 2012 Virgo will continue to develop the business started last spring or autumn. Many representatives of this sign will put a too heavy burden on themselves, constantly feeling responsible for everything, including the smallest details. Some hostile movements are growing, preventing Virgo from putting an important and necessary project into life. Conflicts are quite probable to be breaking out constantly, and the most difficult months are January, the end of March and April. This year foresees a possible separation with one of the business colleagues or long-standing partners. In another case you will have problems with high-rank persons or protectors that will aggravate business affairs and contacts. However, despite all the difficulties and even against them, the business goes forward and many plans and ideas are being put into life. The stars are granting you help and resources, as they are entirely on your side, and are offering you a chance to transform your business affairs. Expansion of business, purchase of office and other transformations in affairs are possible. Businessmen and heads of departments can rely on their assistants and subordinates; employees may trust their colleagues. You can expect a success in affairs or career development in February or in June. In the second half of the year some problems will appear. Connections with partners from other cities and countries will be revised. Overseas colleagues can fail to fulfill their obligations that will cause disagreements and slow down the activities. The peak of troubles will be reached in autumn, and November may prove to be the hardest month. It is possible that you'll have to part with some of your foreign colleagues, but new connections will appear instead of old ones, and business will be renewed, but on a stronger basis. If you are planning to start a business abroad or in another city, you will achieve a desirable success in the following year of 2013.
